

SQL Practice Questions – Restaurant Orders Dataset

Beginner to Advanced SQL Practice Set

1. Display all records from menu_items.
2. Display all records from order_details.
3. Show only item_name and price from menu_items.
4. Find all menu items belonging to the American category.
5. Find menu items with a price greater than $15.
6. List menu items ordered by price (highest to lowest).
7. List menu items alphabetically by item name.
8. Find menu items priced between $10 and $15.
9. Find all Italian dishes.
10. Find menu items whose names contain the word Chicken.
11. Count the total number of menu items.
12. Find the most expensive menu item.
13. Find the cheapest menu item.
14. Calculate the average menu item price.
15. Find the total value of all menu items.
16. Count how many menu items exist in each category.
17. Find the average price of items in each category.
18. Find the most expensive item in each category.
19. Find the least expensive item in each category.
20. Calculate the total menu value by category.
21. Count the total number of rows in order_details.
22. Find the number of unique orders.
23. Find the earliest order date.
24. Find the latest order date.
25. Count orders placed on each date.
26. Join both tables and display order details with item names.
27. Show all ordered items along with their category and price.
28. Find how many times each menu item was ordered.
29. Find the top 10 most ordered menu items.
30. Find the 10 least ordered menu items.
31. Calculate total revenue generated.
32. Find revenue generated by each menu item.

33. Find revenue generated by each category.
34. Which menu item generated the highest revenue?
35. Which category generated the highest revenue?
36. Find the order containing the highest number of items.
37. Find the average number of items per order.
38. Find orders with more than 5 items.
39. Find the top 10 highest-value orders.
40. Find the lowest-value order.
41. Extract the hour from order_time.
42. Count orders by hour of day.
43. Find the busiest hour.
44. Calculate revenue generated by each hour.
45. Identify peak dining hours.
46. Find the most popular item in each category.
47. Find the least popular item in each category.
48. Determine which category has the highest average order frequency.
49. Find categories contributing more than 25% of total revenue.
50. Rank categories by revenue.
51. Rank menu items by revenue.
52. Rank menu items within each category by number of orders.
53. Find the top 3 items in every category.
54. Calculate cumulative revenue by menu item.
55. Calculate running total revenue by order date.
56. Find orders whose value is above the average order value.
57. Find menu items never ordered.
58. Identify the top 20% highest revenue-generating items.
59. Find the percentage contribution of each category to total revenue.
60. Create a report showing Category, Total Orders, Total Revenue, Average Item Price, and Most Popular Item.
61. What are the top 5 menu items contributing to 50% of revenue?
62. Which day generated the highest revenue?
63. Which category is most profitable?
64. Find menu items with above-average sales.
65. Build a daily sales dashboard query.
66. Find the revenue trend by day.
67. Find repeat items frequently ordered together (self-join challenge).
68. Identify slow-moving menu items.
69. Create a category-wise revenue ranking report.

70. Build a complete restaurant KPI report using a single SQL query.